

Week Ending 4/13/07

Soil excavation began in the Southern Cell and progressed through completion at an approximate depth of 25 feet below ground level in one of the two excavation cells. Excavation began in the second cell. To date, approximately 1,212 tons of soil have been excavated and transported off site for thermal treatment. Monitoring activities continued through the work period.

